

INPROFORUM 2014

Session: „Economic Recovery. Environmental, Economic and Social Consequences for Regional Development“

Session Chair: doc. Ing. Eva Cudlínová, CSc.
Place: room 219, Deanship of Faculty of Economics
Time: 13:00, November 6, 2014

Thursday, November 6, 2014

1. PhDr. Jan Vávra, Ph.D.: „How to undermine ideas of Green growth: Case of photovoltaic electricity production in the Czech Republic“
2. PhD. Maria Ramona Sârbu: „The Human Development Index in Global Context.“
3. doc. Dr. Ing. Dagmar Škodová Parmová: „Current Conditions of Labour Market in South Bohemia Region.“
4. Ing. Sylvie Kotásková, JUDr. Ing. Renata Korcová: „Participation of citizens in public life in Nové Hradý“
5. Andrea Čapkovičová, MSc.: „How do Czech rural regions cope with the recent economic crisis? Evidence derived from unemployment development.“
6. JUDr. Jana Borská, JUDr. Ing. Renata Korcová: „Expenditures and financing of social security in the Czech Republic, including social and legal protection of children.“
7. PhD Amir Imeri, Ing. Zuzana Bajusová: „Economic effects in Slovakia within integration in the European Union.“
8. Ing. Sylvie Kotásková, Ing. Radek Kopřiva, Ph.D.: „Preferential votes in municipal elections and the possibility of their analytical use in the study of voting behaviour.“
9. Ing. Filip Petrách, Ph.D., Ing. Jiří Alina, Ph.D.: „Transport as a Key Factor of Competitiveness in Selected Regions.“
10. Ing. Vojtěch Beck: „Regional representation of social enterprises in the Czech Republic in the context of a comparison of selected indicators.“